CONGRESSMAN
FRANK LoBIONDO

Starting with his successful election to the Cumberland County Board of Chosen Freeholders in 1984, Frank has served South Jersey on the county, state and federal levels ever since. After three years on the Freeholders Board, he went on to being elected to the New Jersey General Assembly, representing the First Legislative District from 1988-1994. In November 1994, Frank won election to the U.S. House of Representative, serving constituents from New Jersey's Second Congressional District to this day. Born on May 12, 1946, Frank went on to receive his B.A. in Business Administration from St. Joseph's University in Philadelphia before returning home to Cumberland County. Reflecting on his background in business, Frank has been a strong voice for the private sector. He believes it is not the government, but private businesses which create jobs and grow the economy. To this day, Frank's family roots run deep in the community. A true South Jersey man from Rosenhayn.
