Growing Businesses and Communities with New Jersey Community Capital

New Jersey Community Capital (NJCC) will be the focus of the Bridgeton Area Chamber of Commerce luncheon meeting on Tuesday, February 27, 2018, noon at Terrigno's Fairfield Inn in Fairfield Township, NJ. Laura Wallick, the Program Manager of the THRIVE South Jersey initiative at NJCC, will speak with Chamber Members and guests about this initiative and other programs and services of the organization. Ms. Wallick joined NJCC in February 2015 following an extensive career in community and economic development.

As the Program Manager for THRIVE South Jersey, Ms. Wallick is responsible for managing relationships with funders, community stakeholders and partner organizations; promoting capacity building and financing resources to businesses, nonprofit organizations, and public agencies; structuring transactions and tracking economic impacts.

New Jersey Community Capital is a nonprofit community development financial institution (CDFI) that provides innovative financing and technical assistance to support the preservation and development of affordable housing and sustainable community development ventures that increase jobs, improve education, and strengthen neighborhoods. NJCC has earned a national reputation as one of the leading innovators in the community development field with a growing network of partners, programs, services and investors.
